General Information about Karpathos

Karpathos belongs to the Dodecanese complex and it is located on the southern Aegean Sea. One of the most beautiful and traditional islands of Greece, Karpathos has remained untouched by mass tourism. The wild landscape, the gorgeous beaches, the calm tourist resorts, the amazing architecture and the warm attitude of the locals are gradually attracting more and more travelers to Karpathos. The most beautiful beaches are Amooopi, Achata, Apella and Kyra Panagia, while the most amazing village is Olympos, constructed on the slopes of a mountain. Frequently covered with clouds, Olympos looks like the setting of a fairy tale.
